

SPECIALS.

—No more October for a year.
—John Morrissey, the base ballist, arrived in the city last evening.

—The Oakes Company are not to visit Janesville at present. That's the latest.
—Clarence Clark, who is attending the Law School at Madison, is home for a brief visit.

—St. Mary's Catholic Fair is a successful boom, but this is the last day and evening for it.

—"Singing" will be the topic for the song and praise service, at the First Methodist church to-night.

—The funeral services of the late James Lilburn was held at the residence near Emerald Grove to-day.

—It's well enough to say "All hail, November, but we don't want all hail. Give us some pleasant weather."

—All Saints day was duly observed this morning by services at the Episcopal and Catholic churches of the city.

—The People's Lodge, I. O. G. T. organized a week ago, held another meeting last evening, and received fourteen new members.

—The case of Marshal Russell was to-day adjourned until December 15th, the business of the Circuit Court, and the absence of witnesses making such a delay necessary.

—The Round Table meet at Cannon's hall to-night to converse on "Old English Literature." Rev. Mr. Sawin will take the management assisted by Rev. L. Lee Royce, Miss Annie King and others.

—Rev. H. Stone Richardson, formerly pastor of Court street church, has lately been appointed pastor of the Methodist church at Bay View, Rev. H. Coleman having been promoted to the position of Presiding Elder.

—Twitchell & Fisher, the wide awake musical men, have gone to Chicago to get two car loads of musical instruments, to fill orders already taken, and to get stock in time to take advantage of the market, as to-day there was an advance.

—Janesville Council No. 4, S. T. of the Temple of Honor will hold an important meeting at Temple Hall, on Monday evening, November 31, when will occur the semi-annual installation of officers for the ensuing term. Grand Chief of Council, of Wisconsin, S. C. Burnham, Jr., will conduct the installation exercises. Let all the members of the Council be on hand.

—As will be seen by our telegraphic news Rev. A. D. Hendrickson, of this city has been appointed Superintendent of the Industrial School at Waukesha for the time being, the acting Superintendent being still very sick. Mr. Hendrickson is thoroughly posted, as he has been Superintendent before, and it is fortunate that he could be secured for this emergency.

—Mrs. Thompson, the aged mother of Hon. J. B. Cassaday, died last evening at her son's residence, which she has made her home for about twenty years. For many years she has been afflicted by blindness, but through all he trials she has shown a spirit of Christian fortitude, which marked the sincerity of the belief to which she clung closely to the very last. For years she has been a member of the First Methodist church, and was a constant attendant upon its services. For ten days past she has been ill, and weakened by age as she was, disease soon gained the mastery, and she is no more. The funeral services are to be held at the residence of Mr. Cassaday to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, and will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Sewell.

—Last evening there was a gathering at the Armory called there by the announcement that Mr. Laskin was to speak. He was greeted with cheers, and at the close of every sentence the applause broke forth in deafening rounds. A bull dog, who seemed to be trained for the occasion, would then run out and bark, and a cry would be raised to "pat him out." Another sentence would be dropped from the lips of the speaker, and the scene would be repeated, with an occasional whoop of "louder." The speaker would repeat the sentences by request, and in fact tried to comply with every wish of the audience. Some of the opposition party pretended to be so enraged with some of the red hot sentences uttered, that they started a seeming row, blew out the lights, and the speaker was hastily hurried out of the reach of the pretended danger of violence. It seems that some more fitting object of ridicule can be found than to pick out as a target a man who evidently lacks the mental sentences to see that the broadest kind of drives are made at him.

OBITUARY.

URIAS STORY.

The sad news reached the city to-day that Urias Story died at Albany yesterday. Mr. Story was one of Janesville's old settlers, having come here from Chautauque county, New York, in 1837. He was engaged in the blacksmith and carriage-making business here for years and was prospered greatly for a time. His shop stood on about the same site as that now occupied by Hodge & Buchholz, and there he did a thriving business for a long time. Some ten or twelve years ago he removed to a farm, which he then owned near Albany, and has since that place his home most of the time since. His first wife was a sister to Dr. Warren.

The present Mrs. Story is a sister of the well known George S. Bangs, of the railway postal service. Besides the widowed wife, Mr. Story leaves several children: Frank Story and Charles Story, of Cincinnati, and George Story, also in the railway postal service, and two sons who live in Albany, also three daughters, one being Mrs. Maria Baldwin. Mr. Story's brother, Mr. Harvey Story, who has lately moved to Iowa, is also well known here, having settled in Janesville about the time that the deceased came here.

Mr. Story was a genial, accommodating man, of good parts, and having a character which ever commanded respect. He was only in his sixty-second year, but for some months has been enfeebled in health and since last August has been gradually weakening in vigor, so that his death was not wholly unexpected, though it came sooner than looked for. The remains are to be brought to this city for interment in Oak Hill cemetery, and will reach the cemetery about 1:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, at which time all friends desiring to witness the burial service should be present. Mr. Story had many very warm friends among the old settlers here, and to the bereaved ones their earnest sympathy will be extended.

BUSINESS IS BUSINESS.

A large number of business men met at the Common Council chamber last evening to discuss matters of local importance. Mr. Alex. Richardson called the meeting to order and was chosen Chairman, and Mr. L. B. Carle was elected Secretary.

Mr. Richardson stated the object of the gathering, it being to ascertain whether there was any cause for the prejudice which seemed to exist in certain parts of the county against the Janesville grain market. Many claiming that more was being paid for grain at other points than here, it was well to take steps to find out the facts, and if they were true, whether the railroad companies were to blame by discriminating against Janesville.

A number of those present joined in talking over the matter, among them being F. S. Lawrence, McKee Bros., Mr. Carle, J. M. Bostwick, B. F. Crosscut, Wm. A. Lawrence, A. E. Burpee, C. G. Conrad, R. T. Pember, T. T. Croft, H. S. Hoggaborn, Frank Gray, N. O. Clark, and W. T. Vankirk. From the informal conversation had about the business interests of the city it was decided best to have a committee to investigate and get at the facts, not only in regard to prices paid for grain, but also in regard to produce and merchandise of all kinds, and to look up the freight rates as compared with other places, with a view of taking further action if it was needed. The business men of the city are awakened evidently, and the gathering last evening may cause the forming of a permanent organization for the discussion of all such questions of general interest, and for the taking of such action as may be deemed expedient from time to time. The feeling that by mutual conference and united action the interests of the city can be advanced, seems to have taken hold of all classes of business men here, and another meeting will be held at an early date to listen to the report of the Committee which consists of W. T. Vankirk, L. B. Carle, Alex. Richardson and Wm. A. Lawrence.

MUSCULAR RHEUMATISM. yields to the wonderful influence of St. JACOB'S OIL.

A GOOD WORD FOR DR. BURRUS.

A correspondent from Cambridge, in Dane county, in a letter to the Gazette, thus speaks of Dr. Burrus:

Dr. A. P. Burrus, of Janesville, has been lecturing here on the mental and physical organs, also on human teeth. After the lecture each night the Doctor held physiological examinations, which greatly interested and amused his audiences. His lectures were well attended, and by the best and reading class of the community, some coming from a long distance to hear him. Dr. Burrus has had also at the time could attend in the line of dentistry during every day.

ANOTHER WORD.

I want to say to Brother Sewell, that, according to my judgment, God is not "inconsistent." I supposed my brief reference to his sermon would readily be understood to mean that the inconsistency was wholly on the part of men in their interpretation of the Divine Government. What the "other question" to which he refers in his reply can be I am sure I don't know. I further supposed that the report of his remarks in Monday's paper was entirely accurate—that it was virtually "his production," and might fairly be criticised as such. When his promised "summary" appears, I may, if the privilege be granted me, have something to say about it. As yet I have given no adequate criticism either of the subject matter of his discourse, or of the tone and spirit in which it was presented.

CON-SISTENCY.

Janesville, Oct. 31st.

The wonderful simplicity of the Harris & Smith Safety Lamp renders it all the more popular. People wonder why it was not thought of before. Had it been known years ago thousands of valuable lives would have been saved. Better late than never. It is now sold by all lamp stores.

THE GALLOWES.

CORNWALL, Ont., Oct. 31.—Clark Brown, convicted of the murder of his father and sister at West Winchester on the night of the 2d of September last, was hanged here this morning in the presence of about seventy-five persons. The prisoner walked with a firm step to the gallows, and said nothing. His confession had been given under seal to the Rev. Dr. McNish. After being placed on the trap the black cap was drawn over his face, the noose slipped over his head, and during the delivery of the Lord's Prayer the bolt was drawn. Not a muscle moved. The pulse ceased to beat eight minutes after the bolt was drawn.

The Fox Lake (Wis.) Representative Says:

"DR. V. C. PRICE—This physician has established a reputation in this vicinity, and proved himself capable of performing all he advertises. He takes no case under treatment, that is being treated by another physician, but advises that every physician has his field, and that it is only those diseases that have become chronic by long standing that Dr. Price does treat, and we advise all who have such complaints to try him; his advice will cost nothing and he may be able to do much good. Surely if Dr. Price had any natural ability, his long experience would enable him to locate diseases of this class, and suggest the means of cure."

Dr. Price will make his next visit to Janesville, Myers house, on Saturday and Sunday, November 15 and 16.

STOCK OPERATIONS THAT PAY.

The past few weeks have been prolific of immense percentages of profits at the New York Exchange, by the consummation of moderate sums in well managed stock transactions, which returned a legitimate gain on capital invested according to correct business principles. The active investor in the market. The latest and most successful method for operating in a regular way on the New York Exchange, and the system of dealing in stocks, which affords absolute guarantees that cannot possibly be assured elsewhere. The success of this method is attracting universal attention; it enables any one to operate successfully and secure to each participant all the advantages of unlimited capital on large investments, while profits are divided pro rata among shareholders every month. Over $1,659,323 was netted in one capitalization for each of 37 business men who furnished $2,000 respectively. Monday three gentlemen in New York each invested $1,000 on Lake Shore stock by the Financial Union System, and on Thursday closed the operation with a net profit of $5,579.37 for each investor. Tuesday a bank cashier in Philadelphia put $3,500 in Protective Options on Northwestern stock, and on Saturday closed the contract with $19,387.75 profit. Early in the previous week two mechanics in Boston united their capital and invested $425 on Michigan Central, and 10 days afterwards they acknowledged receipt of $13,495.55 profit. The last week in July five farmers in Central New York invested $500 each in Financial Unions on St. Paul stock, and on Thursday, the 14th of August, they closed the deal and divided $18,000 equally between them. A lady in one of the departments in Washington used $20 for two weeks in Protective on Western Union and Lake Shore stocks, and made a gain of $1,674.02. On Saturday a prominent Pennsylvania politician invested $1,500 in Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and Michigan Central stock, and in five days drew out of the market with $1,763.21 profit. A large brewer in St. Louis put $2,500 in Protective on St. Paul and Northwestern stocks, and fifteen days afterwards closed with a gain of $14,938.37. These are examples of what has been accomplished in Financial Union by the Protective System of operating in stocks when good advice has been followed.—With the present activity the prospects for gain in the near future are more favorable, as the operations are equally as good for catching the profit from fluctuations up or down as they occur. A sum of from $25 to $50,000 or more can be invested with proportionate success by the Financial Union System on regular basis, that leave the control of funds in the hands of investors, with a definite knowledge at all times of just what stocks their money is on, so that they can see at a glance what their profits are at any time of the day by referring to market quotations. All operators are assured of straightforward treatment by the Financial Union system. Orders filled and information furnished by Messrs. IRTHMAR DIBBELL & CO., Bankers and Brokers, No. 19 Broad Street, New York City. oct27daw3w
